WILL PROBABLY DIE AS RESULT OF COLD; TWO OTHER CASES

Wm. Westwood Froze Feet and Gargle Has Set In—Two Others Front: Dittion.

Wm. Westwood, who is an old resident of the county and who has been in the county house at different times for a number of years, is now finally ill at the farm as a result of exposure. Hection night and also a night or two afterwards he slept out doors and froze his feet. Later he came to the county house and an operation was performed removing all the toes from one foot. Westwood had let it go too long however as gangrene had set in and it is not believed he can live.

O. C. Williams of Akron, Ohio, came into the police station this morning in a badly frosted condition. He said that he was on his way to Harbison, where he was to join the circus, having travelled with them for a number of years. He had ridden on the top of a car as far as Mayfair and his hands, feet, ears and nose were frost bitten. Officer Panting furnished him with breakfast and a ticket was obtained for him to Harbison.

Thomas Powers, who came into the police station on Tuesday night with a pair of badly frosted feet, was taken from the jail to the county house today. Powers was a member of the H. B. Marino force for ten years. Before coming here he had been sick and had used up all his money. In walking from Rockford to Deloit in search of work he frosted his feet on Monday night. He will not suffer any permanent injury.

HIS RUNAWAY WIFE TURNED HIM DOWN; SO TRIED SUICIDE

John Sweet of Stoughton Mixed Nearly Two Ounces of Carbolide Acid With His Beer Last Night.

In a fit of despondency, supposed to have been induced by his wife's refusal to return to Stoughton and live with him, John Sweet, a man about 50 years of age, poured nearly two ounces of carbolic acid into a glass of beer, at the St. Charles Hotel bar last evening. The poison began to get in its work a few minutes after he had swallowed the mixture and when Sweet tumbled to the floor a call was sent to the police station. Officer John Brown walked the man to headquarters and Dr. Fred Sutherland was summoned. A half pint of raw alcohol, a quarter of a pint of whiskey, and a stomach pump were used to such good advantage that the projected journey across "the big ditch" was indefinitely postponed.

Sweet's wife, who is twenty years his junior, took French leave from him and four little children about a month ago. Three of the infants were afterwards sent to Stoughton and the father kept one little girl. It is alleged that a number of romantic novels were subsequently found among her effects. She went first to Edgerton and then moved to Janesville with a family named Stankor, or something like that, who took up their residence on South Franklin street. A day or two ago Mrs. Sweet decided to give up her lodgings there and live with a family across the street. The Stankor family tried to prevent her from taking her clothes and Officer Peter Champion visited the place with her on Tuesday and forced them to surrender the effects. Mr. Sweet had learned of this trouble and visited the police station yesterday to make inquiries regarding his wife's present whereabouts.

It appears that he found her but that she refused to have anything more to do with him. The little girl who accompanied him here was left in the room at the St. Charles hotel and Sweet claims to have made arrangements with one of his married daughters to take charge of her in case anything happened to him. He expressed some regret over his rash action this morning. Some question has been raised as to his mental balance and Judge Field committed him to the county jail for five days in order that this may be quietly investigated.

RESPOND WELL TO CALLS OF CHARITY

Clothing is Being Donated For Work of Associated Charities Every Day.

Members of the Associated Charities are well pleased with the way the citizens of the city have responded to their calls for clothing and toys. Clothing has been brought to the ladies, who have been at Helmsstreet's drug store, all day, by many. Toys have not come so fast and the association requests that as many as possible bring in toys which they may have around the house that they may serve to make some less fortunate child happy on Christmas.

LOCAL MERCHANTS SELL THE STAMPS

The Red Cross Stamps For Christmas Packages Will Be On Sale in This City.

Janesville is to enter the field for the disposal of the Red Cross Christmas stamps and is with La Crosse and Madison. In the disposal of this stamp the Red Cross society that is to battle for supremacy with the great White Plague.

The Gazette today placed an order with the headquarters of the movement in Milwaukee for five thousand stamps at one cent each and these stamps are to be disposed of to the merchants to be sold to their customers to help the good work along.

It is a charitable habit, the stamps are furnished at one cent each to the Gazette and sold to the merchants at the same price and can be obtained from them at the same price. No one makes anything but every person who buys one stamp at one cent helps the work along and adds to the fund of fighting the dread plague.

The little stamps are designed as a Christmas and New Year's greeting and are suitable for sending Christmas packages, letters and holidays. They take the place of the little stickers of holy wreaths used in many cases and are neat affairs.

Among the Janesville merchants who will handle them during the holidays are J. M. Bokwiel, Hart and Bailey, Archie Holt, Geo. Simpson, George E. King, Peoples Drug Co., Ransom and Co., Indigo Drug Co., E. O. Smith and Co., McCann and Co., J. P. Baker, E. J. Helmsstreet, O. L. Piper and William Fleck. These merchants have taken a quality stock of the stamps and will furnish them to customers.

The Gazette has taken up the matter as a matter of charity and the merchants are aiding. Others who desire to help the good work along can obtain stamps at the Gazette office at one cent each. In Madison and La Crosse the sale of the stamps is quite spirited and under the direction of the city officials.

Do not ask for the stamps. They can be found at the stores named and as soon as others place them on sale their names will be noted in the list.

The "Mistral."

The mistral is a cold, northwest wind which does much damage at certain seasons in France and Italy. From the close of autumn to the beginning of spring, it is especially violent. It dries up the soil and causes dangerous storms on the Mediterranean sea.

RIPPLES OF MIRTH

THE DAY'S FABLE.

One day as the Sage sat at the mouth of his cave in the rocks wondering what the pulse of virtue would be in the coming legislature, he was approached by a man with anxious countenance, who began:

"O, wise man, I have come to thee in my distress of mind, and to beseech thee for a few words of advice."

"Thou shalt have them, Go ahead."

"I am but an humble citizen."

"I see."

"But ambition burns in my breast."

"Sure, it's ambition instead of indulgence."

"More than sure, O Sage, I have tried again and again and they have no effect."

"Well, call it ambition and get along."

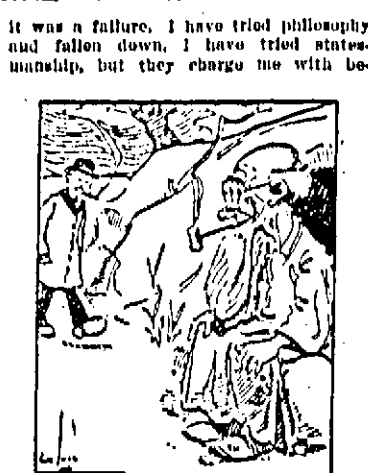

"I seek to rise among my fellow-men."

"That is praiseworthy."

"I would make a place and a name for myself. I would have men point me out to each other. I would have my name left before the people in large type."

"I see. Your name in small type in all the dailies would make you proud. Well, if you want all this, why don't you get it?"

"Tis that I have come here to ask about. What shall I do? How make my start? How mount the first rungs of the ladder of fame? I have tried poetry, but

"And truly," replied the Sage, "they were right when they called you an ass. The solution of the puzzle has been in

"Surely."

HE DIDN'T WANT WORK.

"I've seen a good many different sorts of 'traps,' recently, remarked a woman who lives in the suburbs. 'But the price article stopped at my house the other day I happened to be in the kitchen when he knocked at the door."

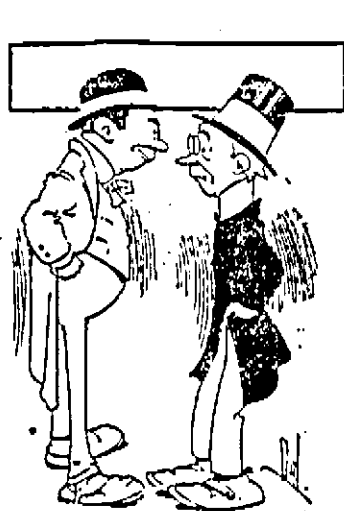

"'Lady,' he said to the cook, 'would you be so kind as to give a poor man a drink of water?'"

"The cook picked up a glass and held it out, pointing to the pump."

"Thank you very much, lady," said the tramp without moving a muscle, "and now if you'll please hold that glass and the other lady kindly work the pump handle we shouldn't be long."

Drive Whiskey From Your Home

You can have your choice; you must either drive liquor from your home, or IT will surely drive you out.

Plain talk, but it's true; alcohol in any form is a poison. It destroys a man's will-power, at the same time ruins his nerves and stomach. Unfortunately he invariably is of the belief that it does not hurt him, as he says he feels better after taking a drink. He honestly thinks it braces him up, but the truth is, it only numbs his mind and weakens his nerve and muscle forces. As soon as the effect of the drink wears off he is worse than before. He must have your help at this time. Scolding, pleading or praying will not cure the diseased mind and nerves. WHITE RIBBON REMEDY WILL! It will build him up, make him eat and sleep better and entirely remove his desire for liquor.

WHITE RIBBON REMEDY is a powder, which is absolutely harmless, it has neither taste, color or odor, when placed in tea, coffee or food. There is no need to get the drinker's consent to take it, as you can successfully give it to him without his knowledge.

You cannot doubt us, because if you give White Ribbon Remedy either with or without the drinker's knowledge, and it fails to remove the desire for drink in every form, we agree to return your money.

Do not delay. The cost of WHITE RIBBON REMEDY is but $1.00 per box, so start treatment today and save the drinker and your home.

FREE SAMPLE and book on the drink habit, will be sent you in plain wrapper if you address White Ribbon Remedy Co., Union Institute for Savings Building, Boston, Mass.

Muslin Underwear

This department is in our south store. It is a very important one. It is something that sells the year through and women have learned by experience that there is no economy in making Underwear at home. The manufacturer of Undermuslins has been brought to a great degree of perfection. One thing to be carefully considered is the quality of muslin or cambric one gets in a garment. There is much muslin underwear in the market that is dear at a low price or any price. A merchant may make a big noise about it, but it gives no satisfaction to the wearer. Leave it alone. We make a specialty of the "STANDARD" underwear for which we are sole agents in Janesville and have sold it for years. We also handle the fine La Crecque tailored garments and other leading makes. Gowns, skirts, corset covers, chemises, drawers, a wide range of style and prices. We keep our stock complete at all times. It will pay one to make heavy purchases of muslin underwear at 20 per cent or one-fifth off the regular prices.

Winter Underwear

There is probably not a family in this vicinity that will not have to buy Underwear between now and spring. It is a big item with most families and a very important one. We are offering every piece of Underwear in our great stock, (except Munsing) at 20 per cent or one-fifth off the price.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE ARE TAKING ADVANTAGE of the great saving made possible. Remember, nothing but the most reliable grades of Underwear are handled by the BIG STORE. Everything desirable for women, men, misses, boys and children.

Was ever a more favorable opportunity afforded to buy Curtains. INCLUDED are all LACE CURTAINS, PORTIERES, COUCH COVERS. You can see a stock as complete, thousands of pairs, only in cities ten to fifty times larger than Janesville. BIG TALK but we back up all statements with the merchandise.

IMPORTANT and well known by thousands of people, that we SELL GOOD CURTAINS for LESS MONEY, much less than any merchant anywhere, and are proving it to a constantly increasing army of customers who are well posted on the stocks of Curtains not only in Southern Wisconsin, but in Chicago and Milwaukee, and who come right here for them.

Dress Goods

The importance of this sale to dress goods buyers is becoming more apparent as the days go by, and as satisfied customers in the city and out of the city tell their neighbors about how well they fared. If you have any Dress Goods to buy, it is certainly an object to be able to buy the high class Dress Goods that we carry at a discount of 20 per cent. Think of what it means to buy our very best Dress Goods at this reduction.

Fancy Silks

With an assortment as large as you will find here now you can hardly afford to overlook the present opportunity to buy a waist or dress. The styles we show represent some of the best things from the leading silk houses of this country. Variety large enough so that one can find any particular style or color desired. Plaids, checks, dots, stripes, figures, or Persians.

If you are interested in the silk question, now is the golden opportunity. A silk dress or waist makes a dainty Christmas gift. Every piece of fancy silk at 20 per cent or one-fifth off the price.

Every day we are told by women who return to buy after looking around that no assortment in town compares with ours. It is certainly a snap to walk right into a department of ready-to-wear garments showing such a great variety of beautiful styles and select a SUIT OR CLOAK (cloth or satin) and have 25 PER CENT, ONE-FOURTH, TAKEN OFF THE PRICE.

Remember that you can find practically any desirable style you have in mind—garments that are made of the right kind of materials and the styles not too fussy. We have received many compliments on the beauty of our styles of Suits and Cloaks. Women, Misses, Children can all be pleased. The cleanest stock in Janesville—garments all made especially for The Big Store.

CLUBBING AWAY CAPITAL.

"The Publicity Bureau of the State Federation of Commercial Clubs of Oklahoma presents some interesting facts and figures bearing on the paralysis of railroad development in the now state says the Wall St. Journal. The situation summarized is this:

"Two years ago charters were issued and preliminary steps taken for the construction of fifty-six new lines of railways representing a total mileage of 12,129 miles within the limits of the state. In addition thereto charters had been issued for branches and extensions of roads already in operation calling for the building of 812 miles of track, exclusive of sidings. None of these projected roads has been built, and today railway construction is practically at a standstill throughout the state.

"The admission of Oklahoma to statehood was expected to mark the beginning of an era of great development in the state, of which new transportation facilities were to be the basis. It was estimated that the feasible additional railway mileage planned would add $200,000,000 to the taxable value of property in the state. Instead of the anticipated activity there has ensued two years of stagnation, a condition which is attributable directly to the hostile and harassing attitude of politicians and demagogues who have engrafted their dangerous and unsound views in the constitution and laws.

"The Commercial Club literature explains that when investors have been appealed to for money to build these projected roads they have replied that their funds can be invested with a feeling of safety only where the laws of a state are settled upon a fair and conservative basis, and where there is reason to believe that there is no danger of people being prejudiced against investments by the incoherence of political demagogues."

This is the experience of the state which has the bank guarantee law, and a lot of other impractical reforms, and it is not the only state cursed with fanatical laws of recent enactment.

The State of Arkansas lost all of its manufacturing industries, two years ago, while Texas drove out millions of capital during the same period. Wisconsin sacrificed her lumber interests, to large extent, as well as her imported horse industry, to say nothing of the radical measures which caused the old life insurance companies to retro from the state. The San Francisco Journal, in commenting on this matter for more law says:

"For a free people we surely do develop enough and to spare of the spirit of compulsion, the spirit which is hostile to true freedom. This spirit finds expression in the clamorous cries for laws, more laws, and is found in every class of the people, in every section of activity.

If we continue to give it full rein the time must come when the business man will be so entangled in the network of restrictions and regulations that he will sigh for the comparative freedom of the subjects of the Czar, or the half-savage paternalism of the government of Castro.

Fortunately for the retailers, many of the demands for laws to regulate business practices never pass the stage of discussion, but there is danger owing to reiteration of the questions and arguments, the clamor may some day crystallize into a formal movement upon the legislature and another unnecessary and embarrassing measure find its way into the statute books.

"Just imagine how many ways are open for those people who, unmolested of routine and the discipline of law, would cramp and half-paralyze initiative in the grocer—never a strong point in his make-up. The performance of certain food department and health board officials furnish a guide for the fancy, and no one can say that we violate probability in listing the following things as likely objects of the solicitude of so-called reformers whose idea of reform is a new law: Store signs, windows and window displays, delivery horses and wagons, hours of opening and closing stores, hours of calling for orders, make and condition of oil, vinegar and other receptacles, protection of goods against fire and dust, weight-branding of all goods sold by weight, compulsory examination of dealers, licensing of dealers, store clothing of grocers and their clerks, compulsory shaving of store salesmen, physical examinations of grocers and their assistants, price-cutting, the volume of business, the capital employed, the nationality of dealers—all these and many other things are likely to be the subjects of laws unless the present tendency is checked by a return of common sense. Indeed, some of the things mentioned are already enrolled in the category of things legislated for.

The Wisconsin legislature will do well this winter to repeal a lot of obnoxious laws and adjourn after a 10 days' session. The business of the country is entitled to a rest.

FROM FIELD TO FABRIC.

"It is a curious journey that the cotton in your French lingerie makes from the time it leaves the plantation until it goes on your back. In 1907 the United States imported from France $12,850,000 worth of cotton goods and almost two million dollars worth of cotton clothing.

"This a pound of cotton may be grown in a bond in the Mississippi not twelve miles from Memphis and before it is transformed into clothing and is sold it makes a journey of 8,000 miles and passes through a half dozen ownerships.

"After the planter picks the cotton he sends it to Memphis. At Memphis it may be bought for shipment direct to France or it may go to France via England.

"Or the Frenchman may buy the cotton through an English firm and order it shipped direct. In France it goes to a spinner and from him it goes to the dealer in raw cloth. Then the wholesale dry goods man gets it and from him the wholesale dress maker buys it. A New York importing house buys from the Paris dress maker or possibly the Memphis merchant buys direct, and back to within cannon shot of its birth place comes the cotton for consumption.

"The cotton rugs which the dress will decline into may take a second trip abroad and come back to us in the shape of imported paper. If the South could manufacture all the things into which cotton enters this would be the richest territory in the world.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

This little journey of raw material is suggestive of the prominent part which labor plays in producing values. What is true of cotton is true in a larger sense of ores and minerals. The iron ore as it comes from the mine represents but little in comparative value, but when transformed into the multitude of articles in daily use its value is increased many fold.

It represents in the finished product brain and muscle freely invested and labor comes in for a generous share, from the steel rail which stretches across the continent like a ribbon, to the delicate watch spring in the every day time piece.

There is no country in the world where labor plays so prominent a part in enhancing the value of raw material, as in this fair land of opportunity. The land where every man may work out a destiny, if he will.

The American hen is more independent than a labor union in flush times. She goes on a strike without a grievance, and controls a monopoly which defies federal or state legislation. With a full quota of regulators on tap, there ought to be some way devised to regulate the hen.

Patronize the home market for Christmas presents. The local stores were never better supplied.

A long felt want will be supplied when "La Follette's Weekly Magazine" enters the field the first of January, and representative government will receive an uplift.

And now the question is, who received the 40 million dollars paid for the French Panama Canal ditch?

The Red Cross stamps ought to be on sale at every store in Janesville.

Abroad is a locality entirely entirely surrounded by senselessness. In another view it is a homely more or less mysterious, bounded on its further side by your income and on its further side by custom houses where you have to declare everything you bring back with you except a foreign accent and one change of hostility.

Abroad is where

Heart to Heart Talks.

YOUR FACE.

"A woman's face is her fortune." So says the adage. And so is your face your fortune, whether you be man or woman. Your character is engraved on your face as a map is engraved, so that he that runs may read it.

You cannot conceal this map of your character. There it is, as plain and readable as a signboard.

The physiognomy tells.

Your countenance is as telltale as the face of a clock. The dial plate points to what is going on within.

For instance:

Blame sends the red blood to your face, or fear makes it white, or anger purpurifies it, or selfishness hardens it. Likewise nobility stamps the face, courage uplifts it, pity softens it, love illumines it.

Silently, surely, the recording goes on, and finally the cumulative marks become indelible.

Two sculptors—THOUGHT and FEELING—are always at work on your face. Their delicate but forceful chisels carve the lines, and they make no false strokes.

Note the wrinkles!

The REAL wrinkles are in the mind and heart—twists of thought and emotion. Strain of mind and anguish of spirit simply are recorded on the face. The wrinkles are SOUL wrinkles, whether of benevolence or selfishness, love or hatred, or what not.

Some wrinkled faces are beautiful. You have seen them—wrinkles of good humor and kindness. Some wrinkled faces are ugly—wrinkles of early misdeeds and greedy hearts.

Do you want a youthful face? If so, there is but one way to get it. It is not the way of cosmetics or massage. It is the way of youthful thoughts and feelings. You must be youthful WITHIN. Your mind must hold youthful pictures and your heart youthful feelings. The sculptors cannot carve enthusiasms that do not exist.

Do you want a good face? If so, there is only one way. It is not the way of hypocrisy. You cannot deceive the sculptors nor mask your soul from them. There must be goodness WITHIN. Your thoughts must be clean and your feelings humane.

Your face is your fortune because—

You there advertise the best you are and the best you can do or the worst you can do and the worst you are.

A NEW THING IN DENTISTRY

These are wonderful times. In dentistry progress is rapid and continuous.

For painless work, I have a new agent for use on the gums around the teeth which numbs them for 15 minutes.

It is not Cocaine.

Contains no Cocaine or any of its derivatives.

It is harmless and remarkably efficient.

I am astounded every time I use it at the delightful results obtained. Just took out 7 teeth for a lady, and heard her out in my office waiting room declaring to a lot of friends sitting there that, "Dr. Richards had not hurt her at all."

Would be glad to have you call and talk with me about what your needs are in the dental line.

You will be under no obligations to have me do your work either now or over.

MUCH ADO ABOUT A PHONEY RUBY

E. E. ELLSWORTH INVOLVED IN A COURT CASE.

WITH COMIC-OPERA SETTING

Claims That Action Brought by Mrs. Kate Kennedy is a Put-Up Job

Elmer E. Ellsworth, the well known dealer in nursery stock, appeared in municipal court shortly after six o'clock last evening to answer to a charge, preferred by Mrs. Kate E. Kennedy, who resides on a farm a little over a mile south of the Blind Institute, of obtaining money under false pretenses. He entered a plea of "not guilty" and $1,000 bail bonds were promptly furnished by C. W. Kemmerer and O. E. Dietrich, pending his hearing which was to have taken place this morning. District Atty. J. L. Fisher, however, had to go to Edgerton on business and an adjournment was taken until Monday morning. Mr. Ellsworth retained the local firm of Nolan, Adams & Trender to defend him and says that he will fight the case to a finish. He characterizes all the charges as entirely without foundation and denies that he ever obtained a loan of Mrs. Kennedy on any pretenses whatsoever. The action against him, he claims, is actuated by malice born of his refusal to entertain certain marked attentions, the nature of which may be revealed at the trial in case the court permits the reading of certain letters which he says he has in his possession.

"The Great Ruby."

The complainant, Mrs. E. Ellsworth alleges that on the 27th of February he did designedly and with intent to defraud falsely pretend to be said Mrs. Kate E. Kennedy that he had in his possession a precious stone, to-wit, a ruby of the value of $1,000, the same being enclosed in an iron locked box; that he did designedly and falsely pretend to place said precious stone in the box and deliver the same as security for $300 which she loaned him; whereas, in truth and fact, there was no ruby or precious stone of the value of $1,000 placed in the box, but an imitation jewel worth not to exceed $10. Wherefore the complainant prays that he be arrested and dealt with according to law.

All News to Defendant.

When called to Jeffery Mount, Smith & Avery's office yesterday afternoon, Mr. Ellsworth says that he found Mrs. Kennedy there and refused to have any conversation with her lawyer, in her hearing. Atty. M. O. Mount thereupon followed him out into the hallway; stated that Mrs. Ellsworth owed Mrs. Kennedy $2,600; and demanded a settlement. "I told him that I did not owe her a single cent. Then he said: 'How about that precious pink-embroidered ruby you gave her for security?' I said: 'I know nothing about any ruby.' He said: 'We want the key to that box that is not in my possession.' He said: 'Then you have no objection to our taking that box to a jeweler and having it opened.' I said that I had no objection, whatsoever, to their doing anything they might wish to do with any box that might be in their keeping."

The Jewel Examined.

The small, iron box was taken to Hall & Sayles' jewelry store where it was broken open and contents noted. A rather attractive looking ruby set in a shirt-and was disclosed, but when W. P. Sayles made an examination he found it to be of soft material. In his opinion, it was neither a ruby nor a reconstructed ruby but some sort of a mineral composition. $15 he thought would represent about twice what it was worth. Members of the jewelry firm of Olson and Olson expressed a similar opinion after subjecting the supposed jewel to a close scrutiny.

Says Complainant Owes Him.

Mr. Ellsworth not only insists that he owes Mrs. Kennedy no money, but also avers that she is in debt to him for a balance on $1,250 worth of nursery stock which he claims to have sold her. It was his original intention, he says, to establish a large nursery on her farm and as a matter of fact he did plant about 3 1/2 acres to raspberries, other bushes, and small trees, as well as beans and considerable other garden stuff, but when any sort of propinquity to the mistress of the premises became distasteful to him, as he claims it soon did, he abandoned the project. The defendant further alleges that an effort was made to prevent, by threats which had nothing to do with any money consideration or ruby, his recent marriage and that his money has been kept from him more or less constant exhortation from that point of vantage. That he has over been associated with Mrs. Kennedy in any sort of a business partnership, as has been reported in some quarters, he unreservedly denies.

ASKED AID OF LAW TO GET PROPERTY

Mrs. C. H. Bilvina Calls in Sheriff to Help Her Get Her Furniture.

Accompanied by District Attorney, John Fisher and Sheriff I. U. Fisher, Mrs. C. H. Bilvina drove over to Lake Koshkonong this morning to get some furniture of hers which her husband had refused to let her have. Mr. and Mrs. Bilvina's family life has been somewhat troubled and some years ago Mrs. Bilvina contemplated getting a divorce.

Wishing to go east with the body of her daughter Violet, who was drowned in Lake Koshkonong with three other children on last Saturday night, she asked for some of her belongings to take with her. Her husband refused to allow her to take anything away and she accordingly called in the aid of the law.

WILLIAM MASON BEFORE COMMISSION

Allegations Made by Certain Members of Common Council Are Being Investigated.

The fire and police commission was in session this afternoon to make an inquiry into the allegations made against William Mason by Aldermen Sheridan and Richardson. The petitioner was given notice to appear and will undoubtedly give a full and satisfactory explanation and good reasons for being absent from his beat on all the occasions specified, as he appears to have been acting under orders from headquarters in every instance.

A Bank's Character

NO two Banks are alike. Each has characteristics peculiar to itself. Facilities, clientele, policy—all vary. Therefore it is important to consider the character of a Bank when choosing one. This Bank has a long, honorable record, its direction has always been characterized by sober conservatism and progressive management. We ask your consideration of these facts.

GRIEVING FOR HIS OLD HOME.

Possibility That Unfortunate Was Not Altogether Deserving.

The old man was seated in the park, front tears coursing down his cheeks. He was such a pathetic picture that the sympathetic passer-by stopped and asked him if he were ill.

"Yes, sir," said the sorrowing old fellow. "I have just had bad news from home. The house that has sheltered me for years is to be sold and torn down, and I haven't a penny to my name to stop it. Everybody in it will be turned out, and Heaven knows what will become of them."

"Poor soul!" said the sympathetic passer-by, slipping a dollar into the old man's hand. "That isn't much money, but you are welcome to it."

"Thank you, sir," said the old fellow, smiling through his tears. "Every little bit helps, and I am very much obliged to you."

"Where is this old home of yours, my friend?" asked the philanthropist.

"Up at Sing-Sing," replied the old man. "It's the jail, sir. I've lived there 25 years altogether."

And the philanthropist passed on.—Harper's Weekly.

Jap View of Baseball.

One strong-arm gentleman called a Pitch is hired to throw. Another gentleman called a Stop is responsible for whatever that Hon. Pitch throw to him, so he protect himself from wounding by soft pillows which he wear on hands. Another gentleman called a Striker stand in front of that Stop and hold up club to fright off that Hon. Pitch from angry rage of throwing things. Hon. Pitch in hand hold one baseball of an unripe condition of hardness. He raises that arm—left—then twist—a sudden! He shoot them bullet-ball straight to breast of Hon. Stop. Hon. Striker swing club for vain effort. It is a miss and then deathly ball shoot Hon. Stop in gloves. "Struck once!" decried Hon. Emperor, a person who is there to gossip about it in a loud voice.—H. Togo, in Atlantic.

THE MERRY WIDOW HAT OF 50 YEARS AGO.

"The Quaker is much admired at the recent general adoption of his hat by the public and has now originated a design which seems beyond imitation."

History repeats itself perhaps more in fashions than in any other department of life. It was generally supposed that the "Merry Widow" hat, so popular this spring, was of recent origin, but it seems that the simple Quaker of 50 years ago adopted a form of hat which is closely related to the present style. The Quaker, however, was driven to it in order to differentiate himself from the rest of the world, but the ladies who adopted the prevailing style did so for an entirely different reason—namely, to be like the rest of the world.

ARMY IS EXPENSIVE

Total Estimates for Coming Year Are $189,755,039.

SECRETARY WRIGHT'S REPORT

Increase of About $32,000,000 Due Mainly to Public Works of Civil Character—Detachment of Officers Makes Addition Advisable.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Secretary of War Wright made public his annual report Wednesday, and in it asked appropriations for his department for next year of $189,755,039. This is about $32,000,000 more than the appropriations for the current year, but of this amount $24,000,000 is wanted for public work of a civil character, such as river and harbor improvements.

Of the balance, about $10,500,000 is an additional estimate for the support of the army, military academy and the militia. For military public works, such as fortifications, arsenals, military posts, etc., the estimates call for an increase of $17,800,000.

Secretary Wright especially recommends an addition of 612 officers to the army, and also approves a policy for the elimination from the service of all officers who fail to maintain the requisite standard of efficiency.

Need More Officers.
The necessity for more officers, the report states, is due to the unavoidable detachment of officers from their regular service with troops. Their detachment for recruiting duty, for duty as instructors in the army and at state institutions, as well as with the militia of the several states and territories, has occupied the time of a large number of officers. At present there are on detached duty 691 officers and 157 additional absent on leave or on account of sickness. Besides this, examinations, court-martial service, and numerous other kinds of special duty, though temporary in character, make a considerable increase in the number of officers that are constantly unavailable for regular service with their commands. He adds that it would be a measure of wise economy to provide an extra number of highly equipped officers for these added duties that have been thrown upon the army, as the result would be highly beneficial in case of war.

Cortelyou's Treasury Report.
The annual report of Mr. Cortelyou, the secretary of the treasury, shows a reversal of conditions for the fiscal year 1908, as compared with the fiscal year for 1907. For the latter year the receipts were $84,230,588 in excess of the disbursements. For the fiscal year 1908 the disbursements were $39,079,291 in excess of the receipts, due to business depression and increased appropriations. Fortunately, the report says, the available cash balance at the beginning of the fiscal year was $272,061,145. Through treasury operations during the financial disturbances the amount of public deposits with the banks reached $226,518,321 on November 30, 1907, and on December 27, 1907, the maximum of $259,994,271 was attained, after which it was decreased to $259,920,154 by the close of the month.

Further withdrawals decreased this amount to $118,379,536, on November 10, 1908.

BOMB IS EXPLODED IN NEW YORK TENEMENT

Twenty Persons Are Injured and Building Which Was Occupied by Italians, Is Wrecked.

New York, Dec. 10.—More than a score of persons were injured, five of them seriously, and 100 more were thrown into a panic Wednesday when a bomb was hurled into the air shaft of the tenement house at 330 East Sixty-third street. The house was wrecked. The building was occupied exclusively by Italians and it developed that threatening letters had been received by many of them during the past few months.

The explosion was terrific. The concussion shook buildings for blocks. The sides of their air shaft down which the bomb was thrown are lined with sleeping rooms on one side and bathrooms on the other. Practically all of those injured were asleep in the bedrooms on the south side. The bathrooms were wrecked, the water pipes torn and broken and the whole building on that side was flooded before the water could be cut off in the partially wrecked cellar.

Plaster and bricks, mixed with jagged pieces of glass from the shattered windows, were hurled into the sleeping rooms with frightful force and some of those injured were found half buried and unconscious under the debris piled upon their beds.

The roar of the explosion brought residents out into the street for blocks around and in a few minutes a crowd of hundreds of half-clad men and women were gathered in front of the house.

It was more than an hour before the excited men and women who thronged the surrounding streets could be quieted and induced to return to their homes.

Philadelphia, Dec. 10.—Efforts to locate in this city P. J. Kieran, former head of the Fidelity Funding Company of New York, which is in the hands of a receiver, have thus far proved unsuccessful. A warrant has been issued for him by the Pittsburgh police.

Kills Himself in Railway Coach.
Point Pleasant, W. Va., Dec. 10.—Half a hundred passengers in a coach of the north-bound Ohio Valley Express on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad were horrified Wednesday when Mrs. Storgis, wife of a coal miner, and one of two women patients bound from McDowell county to the West Virginia insane asylum at Spencer, gave a scream and with a large pocketknife slashed her throat from ear to ear. She soon died.

Mrs. Nazimova Is Injured.

LAKE TO GULF CANAL IS URGED BY JOHNSON

Minnesota Governor Tells Conservation Commission It Would Solve the Rate Problem.

Washington, Dec. 10.—That the middle west is enthusiastic for the preservation of national resources and that the great need of the time is the development of inland waterways was the message delivered Wednesday by Gov. Johnson of Minnesota to the national conservation commission, which met with the governors of many states.

"I believe the greatest investment this nation can make to-day is to construct a canal from Lake Superior to the Gulf of Mexico," asserted the governor.

Gov. John A. Johnson.

It will solve the problem of rate regulation in the interior and will make unnecessary further discussions between sections or political parties as to whether federal control, absolutely or state control can be best, because competition itself would solve the problem.

Following the inventory of lands, presented by Senator Nelson, there was an informal discussion. Senators Newlands and Smoot and Govs. Nool, Broward, Ansel, Lea and former Govs. Hoke Smith and Blanchard and others participated.

Sentiment in favor of the issuance of government bonds for a comprehensive improvement of the rivers, harbors and canals of the country to the end that this nation shall have the greatest system of waterways in the world, gained considerable headway at the opening sessions of the annual meeting of the Rivers and Harbors commission Wednesday.

BRING BACK RARE SPECIMENS.

Indiana University Professors Return from South American Trip.

New York, Dec. 10.—On the steamer Gulana, which arrived Wednesday night from West Indian and South American ports were Prof. C. H. Elgermann and S. E. Shideler of the Indiana university expedition which left New York August 25 last for the collection of specimens of aquatic animal life and the general study of ichthyology above and below the Cataract Falls in the Potara river, British Guiana. The explorers were successful in making large collections of valuable specimens, they report, not only about the falls but along the Demarara and Essequibo rivers. Prof. Elgermann penetrated into the territory beyond the falls, a region which only one previous American party is known to have visited.

GEN. HUGH CAMERON DIES.
"Kansas Hermit" Succumbs to Apoplexy in Topeka.

Topeka, Kan., Dec. 10.—Gen. Hugh Cameron, known as the "Kansas Hermit," died Wednesday night of apoplexy in a local hospital. He came here Tuesday from Lawrence to attend the funeral of A. H. Case, an old friend. Gen. Cameron was born in Saratoga, N. Y., 82 years ago. He went to Washington shortly after the election of Zachary Taylor as president. There he became acquainted with Webster, Clay, Douglas and other eminent statesmen of the day. He moved to his hermitage near Lawrence in 1854.

Ptoimales Kill a Walter.
San Francisco, Dec. 10.—The first death reported in connection with the many cases of ptoimales poisoning among the persons who partook of the luncheon given at the Mare Island Navy yard on last Saturday afternoon after the launching of the collier Prometheus, is that of James C. Reynolds, one of the waiters who served the luncheon.

They were 88 and 75 years of age, respectively. The gas had been accidentally left turned on in the kitchen stove when the aged couple retired.

Two Iron Workers Killed.
New York, Dec. 10.—Two sheet iron workers were killed and two others slightly injured in East New York late Wednesday when a row of steel uprights supporting the roof skeleton of a lofty coal shed buckled and collapsed.

The Woman Who Works.
The woman who works is inevitably a woman who is broad in her views. Her opinions are not riveted to any one spot. Her viewpoint is movable. Her experience in the business mart gives her sympathy for other women workers. She has learned to accept every friend, new and old, at an honest valuation. She learns to enjoy the society of people who have made something out of life.—Exchange.

Read the Want Ads.

The Will and Its Application.
An individual's will is like a big piece of strong machinery; the intellect must direct its workings. The biggest muttonhead on earth can have a strong will; the real strength is in knowing how to use it. All of life's experience goes to teach us that very few arguments, quarrels or distressing situations are worth a fight. Instead of following an impulse to gain revenge, it is always more satisfactory and decent to back up and forget.

Decided.
Gabby caller came into our office to-day and asked us whether we called our job a profession or a business. We answered—right away, without stopping to think—that it was a profession while we were writing the dope, but a business—such a business—when we were trying to sell it. This is an epigram. We made it.—Cleveland Leader.

The Amateur Gunner.
"Ma," asked the little rabbit, "is it true that pa was shot by an amateur gunner?" "Not at all!" snorted the mother rabbit, scornfully; "the gunner was shooting at something else, while your poor father sat behind him and laughed. Unfortunately the gun kicked, and the man sat down on your father and killed him."

Cause for Anger.
Because a neighbor lured away his excellent cook a Jersey man is building a spite fence between his house and that of his fortunate rival. Probably he doesn't want to see how happy the other fellow is.

Forced to Consume Bakers' Bread.
In Dundee, as in other manufacturing towns in Scotland, bread is seldom made in the homes of wage-earners. They economize rigorously in other ways, but pay the bakers a profit on their big four-pound loaves. There are no facilities in many of the one-room and two-room houses of the poorer workmen to make bread.

Youthful Chivalry.
The five-year-old son of the Rev. Stephen S. Wiso was driving up Fifth avenue, New York, recently with his mother. As they approached the entrance to Central park she called his attention to Saint Gauden's famous work, the equestrian statue of Gen. Sherman led by Victory. "But, mamma," he quivered, "why does not the gentleman get off his horse and let the lady ride?"

To Protect the Food.
It is not forerkin meat alone that requires to be looked to. Our own home supplies call for more rigorous inspection, and to this end we must have public slaughter houses, where all meat can be inspected, and possibly a central clearing house, where the inspection would be a reality and not merely a name.—Sanitary Record.

WHAT IS NEEDED FOR THE FARMS

SUPERINTENDENT C. P. CARY
TELLS HOW TO BETTER COUNTRY LIFE.

MODERN CONVENIENCES, TOO

Trolley Lines, Telephones, More Free Delivery Routes Are Considered as Necessary.

"The farming districts need more trolley lines, more free delivery routes, more telephones; they need parcels post and they need libraries within convenient reach," declared State Superintendent C. P. Cary today. This statement was made in reply to a question as to what was needed most for the betterment of the country life of Wisconsin, in view of the visit here Saturday of the commission appointed by President Roosevelt to investigate the conditions of country life and opportunity for improvement.

Mr. Cary said that the farmer needs to feel that "co-operation and not class antagonism is the general law of progress." He suggests that the farmers have better sanitary conditions and modern conveniences, wherever possible in their homes.

Has an Advantage.
"Every sort of occupation and mode of life has its advantages and its disadvantages," said Mr. Cary.
This is particularly true of farm life as contrasted with city life. On the farm, in isolation, in the city is construction; in the country everybody is fairly well to do, in the city are the extremes of wealth and poverty; in the country the simple, natural life, in the city the artificial, strained, unnatural life. In the country may be had wholesome food, pure air, health giving exercise; in the city there is dust, nerve-racking noises and the congestion that results when multitudes of people are crowded together.
In the country you will find more independent in spirit, free to express their opinions, and in the main who use as they think in the city men must work for other men and are under the lash of external necessity.

Farmers Work Alone.
"But this is not the whole story.
The farmers traverse the country, but terminate in the cities. The cities draw the farmers, not only of their best products, but also of their best talents, and most capable young men and young women. Many hold that the city could not prosper and could not reproduce itself if it were not for this constant influx of brain and muscle from the country.
The farmer has contributed largely to the city's wealth, but he has paid dearly on the farm. This is in part due to the fact that farmers, as a class, work alone and not together.
They do not combine to further their own interests so readily as do city people. This is no doubt largely due to the isolation in which they are accustomed to live. This draining off of the surplus wealth prevents many farmers from improving their buildings, their farms, their school houses, and otherwise adding to the general improvement of farm life.
Many a farmer puts up with miserable dilapidated school houses with a little rust of hand surrounding it not big enough for a playground for the children and no barn and forbidding in appearance he can well be taught.

Need of Books.
"Furthermore, he often furnishes a poor, inefficient teacher for his children. He often fails to provide himself and his family with books, magazines, pictures, and music. When this is the case he lives a narrow, stagnant life that utterly prevents his developing into a man of influence in his community. The farming districts for their own betterment need more trolley lines, more free delivery routes, more telephones; they need parcels post and they need libraries within convenient reach. The school house ought to be large and attractive and the people ought to gather there as a social center from time to time for lectures, for musical entertainments, for debating societies and for good times socially. Because of his isolation the farmer stands in need of cultivating the social side of his nature.

"He needs to rub up against people,
to exchange views with them, to argue with them, and to combine with them for the improvement of roads,
for the improvement of social conditions and for the community's advancement generally.

Difficult to Advance.
"The individual farmer finds it difficult to make large strides in advancement if the community in which he lives is not keeping pace with him.
When I say the farmers ought to combine I mean they ought to combine in social ways, not in anti-social ways. They need to feel that co-operation and not class antagonism is the general law of progress. Little can be done by any man in isolation from his fellows, but much can be done when a community unites for the accomplishment of worthy ends.

Need of Conveniences.
"Widely directed community effort,
therefore, is the thing to be encouraged by every intelligent, progressive farmer.

"Farmers are often very careless about their sanitary conditions and the conveniences of their homes. This very day a farmer told me he had put plumbing into his house at a cost of $400. He has flush closets, bath room, hot and cold water, hard and soft water in the house and a septic tank for the disposal of sewage.
It would seem that any farmer of reasonable means could afford such conveniences."

Ceremony Was Performed at the Bride's Home in the Town of La-Prairie Yesterday Noon.
Miss Lillian M. Van Hise and John Rabyor were wedded at the bride's home in the town of La Prairie, Wisconsin, yesterday noon. The Rev. J. H.

tions and an elaborate wedding repast,
the happy couple departed on a brief honeymoon trip. The bride is well and favorably known and the groom is a successful farmer in the town of Plymouth.

A WRETCHED SHOW

"Dazzling Vision of the Fairest Ladies

Intervention.

If the alleged musical comedy, "Miss Manhattan," which was witnessed by a handful of people at the Myers theatre last night over had a successful run in Boston, as advertised, it was a run out of town. "The cans and over-matured grotesqueries are too good for this depraved performance. Disfranchising and some nice warm tar would be about the right ticket. The cast, of the stage, is a sad and hungry looking aggregation with the accessories
of a protracted season of roughness, dirt and I. O. U. salary slips. They would excite some pity, were it not for the utter indecency and obscenity of their disgraceful antics on the stage.

MARY KIMBALL ASKS
FOR THE DONATIONS

Wants Provisions for Dinners for Three Hundred Christmas
Dinners.

Christmas dinner will be prepared for three hundred children at the Mary Kimball mission, to be served on Christmas day at 2:00 p. m. Thanking friends who in the past have done so nobly, I once more ask them to do what they can in making glad the hearts of many of God's little ones who seldom have a good square meal in their homes, but for months look forward to the coming Christmas morning and expecting a feast at the mission. Friends, when preparing a feast for your own loved ones, please cook a little more than is needed for them and send it to the mission for those for whom nothing is prepared.
Meat, poultry, cold coffee, sugar,
vegetables, fruit, fowls, candy, nuts,
and anything good to eat.

Farmers, please send vegetables,
fowls and any and all kinds of farm products. Those who prefer to do so, can send cash with which food will be purchased. Gifts will also be distributed on Sunday following Christmas day. Friends, when purchasing gifts for your own dear ones, please remember those who expect nothing, and send to the mission, 112 S.
Jackson street. Discarded books, and toys will be acceptable, and will, and will make happy some little hearts.
There is a vast amount of suffering and destitution in our city today, and there will be more before the cold winter is over, and this is a fitting time in which to send to the mission
all kinds of clothing, especially warm underclothing, and all kinds of children's garments. About 2000 garments have gone out from the mission during the past year, and the demand is greater than the supply. Almost daily there are calls for clothing, and there are families who regularly send baskets to the mission, for food. Redding of all kinds is in great demand, and even if you think it useless, it will keep somebody warm. Friends, go through your closets and bureau drawers and you may be surprised at what you will find there, which you will never use, but which would make somebody happy.

Donations can be sent to the Mary Kimball mission, 112 S. Jackson St., or if you cannot send them, call up by old phone, 4981, and they will be called for.

City Missionary.

Drake University, the famous music school of Des Moines, Iowa, for which the claim is made that with additional buildings now in course of construction it will be the largest conservatory of music in the world, is to be equipped with sixty-one Schiller pianos. The school now owns twenty-eight Schillers, and a recent order of thirty-three more for the new building will bring the total up to and over the three score mark. The Schiller Piano Co. claims that this is the largest number of pianos of a single make in any musical institution in the country and it looks like a safe claim.

If anyone can disprove it, now is the time to speak. The Schiller Piano Co.
placed its first instruments in Drake against spirited competition,
but they gave such thorough satisfaction that the last order was given by the management without inviting bids from other manufacturers.

Drake University is one of ten con-

Forty Years Ago

Janesville Daily Gazette, Dec. 10, 1868.—Horticultural.—This society held one of its meetings Friday evening, which was very fairly attended, though the number was not as large as desired.

After the transaction of the regular business the members resolved themselves to a committee of the whole and held a somewhat rambling and interesting discussion on various matters pertaining to the subject of horticulture; such as the failure of fruit the past year, the various methods pursued in covering and protecting grape vines, roses and other shrubs and plants generally. Every member present gave his own experience connected with the subject.

The subject of trees came in for a liberal share of the discussion, and it was generally asserted that there is no year, no better tree planting itself for merit than what is commonly known as the "soft maple." This tree has its faults, and what tree has not? Yet for availability and adaptability of the climate it probably cannot for the present be excelled and it is to be hoped that more of them will be transplanted every year, and also from view the many "barren seasons" that disfigure our otherwise beautiful city.

The society takes credit to itself for having induced many persons to plant out trees thereby adorning not only their own homes but the city generally but not only this, but the same will eventually serve as a desirable protector to the inclemency of our very severe winters and lessening the rigors of the same. It has also induced the planting of seeds for raising trees of various kinds, to supply the wants of the community—particularly the White Elm, a tree particularly adapted for street purposes and shade.

Notes in Brief.—The weather quotations for today are—barometer No. 1 winter. Thermometer this morning indicated 13° degrees below zero.—There was a large brilliant social assemblage at the residence of W. G. Wheelock last evening.—A number of young men will give a minstrel entertainment in Lappin's hall on the night of the 14th of this month.

WAVE OF PROHIBITION SAID TO BE RECEDING

National Liquor League Gets Reports from Various States—Scores Anti-Saloon League.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Reports from state organizations made Wednesday to the National Liquor league at its closing session were to the effect that the wave of opposition to the liquor traffic which has been sweeping over the country is beginning to recede. That it was to the interest of the trade that the number of saloons be limited according to population was the expressed opinion of the convention.

Resolutions were adopted declaring that "the industry has been over-legislated, over-abused and over-taxed in the furtherance of a creed or cult that is basically un-American and at absolute variance with every principle of liberty, civic righteousness, economics, common sense and common justice." Another resolution was passed urging the necessity for a continuance and extension of the organization. It was further resolved that "the Anti-Saloon league is a menace to good government, the quietude of communities and vested property rights and exists for no other purpose than to provide occupation and revenue for the members of a close corporation by the processes of perpetual agitation; and that local option is but another name for prohibition and is equally calamitous in its assaults upon property rights."

Timothy L. McDonough of Cleveland was re-elected president; Howard C. Woodbury of Boston vice-president; Robert J. Halle of Chicago secretary, and Thomas C. Hayes of Newark, N. J., treasurer.

The next meeting of the league will be held in this city in January, 1910.

FORMER UNITED STATES SENATOR EDWARD W. CARMACK, WHO WAS SHOT ON THE STREETS OF HIS HOME CITY, NASHVILLE, TENN., BY ROBIN COOPER, THE TRAGEDY, WAS THE RESULT OF MR. CARMACK'S EDITORIAL ATTACKS UPON COLONEL COOPER, THE YOUNG MAN'S FATHER.

The shooting of Mr. Carmack was one of the most thrilling in the history of the south, owing to the popularity of the victim attacked.

Edward Carmack was formerly United States senator, twice representative in congress, once a member of the Tennessee legislature, and one of the most conspicuous of southern editors. During the recent democratic convention at Denver, he was mentioned by many of his friends as a presidential possibility.
